

Township of Ocean Recreation presents a trip to 600 Main Victorian Tea Room – Toms River

Step back in time to the late 1800's and treat yourself and your loved ones to the pleasure of a Full Victorian Afternoon Tea Decorated for the Holidays at 600 Main in Toms River. Leave your cares behind as you enter this beautiful mansion, lovingly restored to its original splendor and creatively decorated by owners Susan and John Notte.

Having purchased the Bed and Breakfast and Tea Room in December 2011, Susan and John took a year to renovate the mansion and in November 2012, they opened for business. Susan and John invite you to experience the stunning antiques that grace every room of their home, creating a vintage atmosphere that is both elegant and relaxing.

Enjoy the ambiance of the tea room with its crisp linens, fine china, tea pots with cozies, and tiered luncheon servers. Savor the Victorian Tea Presentation, graciously served by attentive staff, which includes a freshly brewed pot of tea of your choice, soup of the day, homemade scone with mock clotted cream and lemon curd, salad of the day, and an assortment of tea sandwiches and savories. Finish your amazing repast with our tempting assortment of desserts and pastries.

DATE: February 13, 2020 Time: 12:30
